Election of Legislative Representatives—Trade Review—Vessel Wrecked, &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12—By the arrival of the steamer Idaho we have Honolulu advices to February 26th.

The result of the election for legislative representatives is twenty-seven members chosen, eight ministerial, twelve independent, and seven doubtful. The seats of the seven doubtful Government candidates will be contested.

In Kekula the plantation hands voted almost unanimously for Dr. Mott Smith, marching to the polls with the American flag at their head and the Hawaain banner in the rear of the procession.

A review of the Hawaain trade the past year shows a total export of native products of the value of a million and a quarter. The principal item is sugar, amounting to seventeen million pounds.

Intelligence from Tahiti states the total loss of an English lumber vessel, on Starbuck or Volunteer Island, while making a voyage from Puget Sound to Australia. The name of the wrecked vessel not ascertained.

The King has ordered the Hawaain Parliament to convene on the eighteenth of April.

Rufus A. Lyman has been appointed Lieut. Governor of the Island Hawaya.

The colored seamen of the Lackawana gave a ball in Honolulu by permission of their officers.

WORCESTER, March 12.—There is a unusually large attendance of Republicans at the State Convention.

Hon. D. W. Gooch was elected as permanent President. Wm. Claglin, Francis W. Byrd, Henry Alexander, Jr., and George B. Loring were selected delegates at large.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we approve the action of the National House of Representatives, which, through the impeachment of the President, seems to relieve the country of a great obstacle to a speedy restoration of the political and civil status of the people of the States lately in rebellion, and to the promotion of the industrial and commercial interests of the country.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Massachusetts pledge their individual support to General U. S. Grant as their candidate for President of the United States.

Resolved, That with undiminished confidence in his broad National patriotism and tried fidelity, and with appreciation of his eminent services in the cause of human rights, the Republicans of Massachusetts present Henry Wilson as their candidate for Vice President of the United States.

"Is the union of the various branches of the Presbyterian Church in the United States desirable and practicable on the basis adopted at the recent Convention in Philadelphia, and what can be done to more closely unite the various branches of the Church?"

Ministers and elders outside of the States were invited to enroll their names as corresponding members.

Naturalization Treaty With Germany.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, March 12.—The World's Berlin letter gives a synopsis of the new treaty with the North German Confederation. According to article one the North German Bund covenants to accord to Germans, who become naturalized citizens of the United States and reside in that country five years, the same rights and privileges as to native born citizens of the Republic. In the second clause of the same article the Government of the United States reciprocally agrees to recognize persons who, though formerly citizens of the United States, have become naturalized citizens of the North German Bund, and resided in the territory of the latter five years, as citizens of the Bund. It is provided, moreover, that whoever, having thus alienated himself from his own country and become a citizen of the other country, returns to his native country, and there acquires domicile, shall, by the acquisition of such domicile, be considered to have renounced his adopted citizenship. Article second provides that no person shall be freed by acquisition of citizenship through naturalization from obligations incurred through crime or misdemeanor, committed while a citizen of his native country. Article third extends the extradition treaty of 1852 between the United States and Prussia to the North German Bund. Article four declares the acquisition of domicile, which works loss of citizenship, shall be presumable from two years residence out of his adopted country. The mere declaration of intention to become a citizen is to be of no international effect. Articles five and six relate to the ratification of the treaty, and stipulate this to be effected within six months, and the treaty shall take effect immediately after the exchange of ratifications and remain in force ten years.

FICTITIOUS DESTRUCTION OF BONDS.

The report of the Committee on Retrenchment, on the question of the fictitious destruction of eighteen millions of bonds in the Treasury, came up.

A long debate followed, mainly affecting the character of Mr. Clarke, Superintendent of the Printing Bureau, and the method of printing United States bonds and notes.

Mr. LOGAN took a prominent part, and strongly denounced Mr. Clarke, saying his character was so damnable that its description could not be read in public on account of its immorality.

Mr. RANDALL offered a resolution that the report and testimony be recommitted, with instructions to report whether any and what changes are requisite in the present mode of printing United States bonds and notes.

Mr. KELLY stated that bonds with duplicate numbers were so frequently received for cancellation at the Treasury that the clerks having charge of the matter became alarmed and insisted that the redeemed bonds should not be destroyed but be cancelled and preserved, and that now, when a bond with a duplicate number is presented, some gentleman connected with the Department is called and suggests the number which the bond ought to bear, and the number is changed accordingly. He suggested that the Committee should turn its attention to that particular point.

Mr. STEVENS, Pennsylvania, suggested at 2:30 that the matter go over until to-morrow, and the House take up the bill for the admission of Alabama.

Objection being made by Mr. Van Wyck,

After some sharp discussion between Messrs. Logan and Van Wyck, Mr. Randall's resolution was adopted.

Mr. STEVENS gave notice that at four o'clock to-day he would move the previous question on the Alabama bill.

The question as to the destruction of bonds in the Treasury was resumed and continued until three o'clock, when the Speaker announced the morning hour had commenced, and the bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was before the House.

After various propositions in reference to the course of business, the bill went over until Tuesday.

All the amendments were concurred in, except that making the salary of the Secretary of the Consulate to Guaymas one thousand dollars a year, and that reducing the appropriation for contingent expenses of missions abroad from $50,000 to $20,000.

A Committee of Conference was appointed.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Ills., offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for information concerning the contract made to facilitate telegraphic communication between the Atlantic and Pacific States, as to the amount paid under the contract, the amount paid by the government annually for such telegraphing, the rates, &c., and as to any communication from the assignees of the original company. Mr. WINDOM'S resolution to regulate the tariff of freight on passengers on the Union and Central Pacific Railroads coming up, the House, by yeas fifty, nays seventy-three, refused to the table, and it went over.

The Senate bill to amend the Judiciary act of 1789, was amended by an additional section, repealing the portion of the act of 1867, which authorizes appeals from the Circuit Courts to the Supreme Court of the United States, and passed.

Mr. BINGHAM offered a resolution providing for the report of the impeachment trial by the House stenographer and the printing thereof for daily use in the House. Referred to the Committee on Printing.

An amendment disfranchising all who voted for secession candidates for the Convention, and all who wrote or spoke in favor of secession, was defeated by a vote of thirty-six to forty-seven. An amendment requiring a two-thirds vote of the Legislature to remove disabilities, and each removal to be made by a separate vote was adopted. A motion to disfranchise persons exempted from the army by contracts with the rebel government, was defeated.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, March 12, 1868.

CHEAP FREIGHTS.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day General Walbridge offered a preamble on the subject of cheap freights between New York and the west, concluding with resolutions that the general prosperity of the commercial community can best be promoted by the various divergent railroads, which have their common termini in this city, being retained in such instance under separate and independent management, having in view the common welfare of the several roads and the people at large; that this subject be referred to a committee for their consideration, and report at a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on the 16th inst.

General Walbridge said the rates for heavy freight from Philadelphia and Baltimore by railroad to the west were from three to five dollars a ton less than from this city. Freights were also cheaper from Boston to the west than from New York.

Mr. Dodge said the subject was one of much importance. It cost seventy cents a hundred to send heavy goods from this city to Cincinnati, while it costs only forty cents a hundred to send them from Boston, by a line of propellers from the latter city to Baltimore, connecting with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. This line takes freight to the west at much lower rates than it can be sent from New York, and the commerce of this city is suffering from this cause.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted and a Committee appointed to present a report on the subject.

The Alabama Claims.

Speech of Lord Stanley in English House of Commons.

Address to Minister Adams.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS—SPEECH OF LORD STANLEY.

LONDON, March 12.—In his speech in the House of Commons last Friday, Lord Stanley, after complimenting Minister Adams, said: Whatever else may be the matter of the controversy, it is, I hope, needless to make any profession of my anxiety to settle this dispute, if possible. England has nothing to gain by keeping it open, and something to gain by closing it. We have vast commercial relations with the United States. A long line of continuous frontier. We meet and cross one another in every part of the globe. We have an enormous load of debt, which neither can wish to increase. [Hear! hear; and a laugh.] We can do each other incalculable harm, and I believe it is equally the wish, as well as the interest, of both nations to remain on amicable terms. [Cheers.] I need not therefore say that we want to arrange this matter, if we can. Nor do I think, in the present state of the question, any of difficulty arising from the popular feeling in England. So far from that being the case, the reaction from our earlier feelings is so strong that we are almost too ready to accuse ourselves of faults which we have not committed, and assume in every doubtful point the decision ought to be against us. This is no doubt an error on the right side. But indiscriminate resistance to reasonable demands, and indiscriminate concession of whatever kind are asked, are equally likely to end in mischief. What we have to do is to try and find out what are the strict rights of the case, to state the case so ascertained, and to temperately and fully endeavor to do justice to ourselves and to appeal to a corresponding spirit in those with whom we have to treat. We can discuss this matter more calmly in 1868 than in 1864. [Cheers.] The passions of the moment pass away, but facts and arguments remain, and happily, as the case now stands, the controversy still pending is reduced to within the narrowest possible limits on doubtful questions of fact, as to which it would not be likely that the two governments should agree. We are of one mind as to this: that we know we cannot agree, and are ready to refer to a sure and personally impartial party. The principle of arbitration has been accepted, as far we are concerned, which is an important step. The truth is, we have conceded everything asked for when the dispute began. [Hear hear.] The sole point unsettled between us is this: You are willing, the United States say, to refer to arbitration the question of the Alabama and other kindred vessels. Are you willing to include, as a point in reference, the question whether you were right or wrong in recognizing the Confederation when you did? The answer we have given in substance is: As at present advised, we cannot see what bearing the two things have on each other. For all practicable purposes, as bearing on the event of 1862, you might as well include the question whether we were right or wrong in the war of 1812. But the grounds I rest on are these:

First—That the United States propose to us a matter for consideration which is irrelevant to the issue.

Second—That the irrelevant matter was one to be decided by the consideration of state policy and not of legal obligation, and, therefore, is incapable of receiving legal solution.

Third—That the United States Government, in parallel cases, had absolutely refused to admit any responsibility for adopting a similar course, and that I believe no one would undertake to arbitrate a case so vague and undefined.

I will not now argue the case on its merits, as far as recognition is concerned; but it may be necessary to remind the House that in recognizing the Confederates when we did, we were simply declaring, on May 13th, a state of things to be civil war, which, in official documents since, Mr. Seward, on the part of the United States Government, himself declared to be such. I should be sorry to say anything that would even look like want of respect for the distinguished diplomatist by whom this correspondence has been conducted throughout, and than whom no man in the United States has probably had greater experience; but if the question was one which we could discuss apart from politics, and if we were not thousands of miles apart, we could meet face to face, I should venture to ask him whether he could with gravity call upon me, solemnly, to refer to the arbitration of a neutral body, or some third party, this question: Whether we, the British Government, had a right, on the 13th of May, to declare that to be civil war which, in various documents, especially on the 8th of May, he (Mr. Seward) himself had christened by that name? (Cheers.) Let it be noted, also, that the highest Court of the United States, in a passage which has often been quoted, declares the state of things which then existed to be a state of war. And another argument, familiar to all who have perused the subject, is, that if there was no war, there was of course no blockade, and we might claim damages for every blockade runner captured. Claims such as these would amount up to almost an inconceivable total, and I really cannot think that statesmen of the United States would be willing to let in these enormous claims for the sake of insisting upon a point which, practically, and in its immediate application, is not important. As there has been a great change of feeling here within the last two years, so on the other side of the water a corresponding change is taking place, (cheers.) now that the question is better understood. If the negotiations have been for a time suspended, I will not say broken off, but suspended, the rupture or suspension does not come from our side. According to the ordinary usage, it is now for the complaining party, if they do not like our plan, to propose their own. But then it is said you ought to settle this matter at once, or you will have a quarrel. I am as anxious to settle as any man in any part of this House can be, but I do not believe in the likelihood of the quarrel. (Hear.) I have never concealed my opinion that the American claimants, or some of them at least, under the reference proposed by us, were very likely to make out their case and get their money. To us the money part of the affair is inappreciably small. (Cheers.) Especially, as we have on our side claims which, if only a small portion of them hold water, will form a by no means unimportant set-off to the claims procured against us by the United States. (Hear, hear.) I think if matters were fully adjusted against us, I should not be disposed to grudge the payment. (Loud and general cheering.) The expense would be quite worth incurring, if only in order to obtain an authoritative decision as to the position of neutrals in future wars. (Hear, hear.) If the Alabama claimants are kept out of what may be due to them, they ought to understand, and I think they will understand, that it is not by the act of this Government. And though party politics may run high in the United States, I will not believe that any party can be so reckless or insensible to the interests of their own country, as to engage in a quarrel, possibly engage in a great and costly war, for the sake of enforcing in a particular way a claim which it was in their power to settle, and probably to have settled in in their own sense, without any recourse to violence. To do so would be contrary not only to the reasonable sense of the American people, but would be, in the French phrase, for which no English equivalent exists, "enforcer une porte ouverte," breaking open a door that is not locked. (Hear, hear and laughter.) I cannot but think that indirectly, if not directly, the United States Government may be induced to waive this point. If they decline to do that, it remains to be seen whether any other solution of the question in dispute can be found. Mr. Seward has more than once thrown out hints of a general commission which should deal with all the outstanding questions of all description between the two countries I have verbally, and through Mr. Adams, suggested he should develope that idea. Speaking as an isolated individual, and without prejudice as to what may be done in the future, I should have thought that international questions were better settled one by one. But I am not disposed to reject any reasonable mode of settlement, and if we can agree upon the substance, I do not think either government, the House or the country, would be disposed to stand out on matter of form. (Cheers.)

On taking the Chair, Mr. Lloyd briefly returned thanks and in a concise manner stated the object of the meeting.

On motion of Mr. T. J. Craig, a committee of three was appointed to draft resolutions appropriate to the occasion. The following gentlemen were appointed: Messrs. T. J. Craig, George F. McCleane and John Fleming. The Committee retired, and during their absence Gilbert McMaster, Esq., and Fred Magee, Esq., addressed the meeting in forcible and argumentative speeches.

The following preamble and resolutions were reported by the Committee:

WHEREAS, Much misapprehension now exists in the minds of our citizens, (who have been opposing consolidation with the city of Pittsburgh, and who are now favoring retroversion,) as to the advantages to be gained and the taxation, therefore we, the citizens of Oakland and the adjacent districts, do hereby enumerate some of the advantages and benefits that will flow from consolidation, all of which, if retroversion should prevail, we would be deprived of for many years to come, and then only to be secured at a cost and expense to these districts much greater than can now be had by consolidation with the old city at a slight, if any addition, to the tax now paid.

These advantages are: Gas and water privileges, in many parts of our districts now so urgently demanded.

The regulation under a City Engineer's supervision of our street lines and grades, the importance of which is manifest to every intelligent citizen of the outer districts, but can only be fully appreciated by succeeding generations, and will be a saving to them and us, of incalculable sums, and at once giving beauty and symmetry to our thoroughfares.

A central educational system, shifting a large part of the expense of maintaining common schools on the less populous but more wealthy rural districts of the old city. The assessments of the extreme limits of the law will not at present support the schools required to accommodate the increasing population of the outer districts.

An organized Police system.

The support of a Fire Department with an alarm telegraph.

A representation in the City Councils, enabling many of our citizens to have a voice in the management of a large city as well as suburban districts.

The abolition of toll gates.

These, and many other advantages not enumerated, in our opinion, dispel all the objections that have been raised against consolidation. Therefore

Resolved, That consolidation with the city of Pittsburgh is an important step towards the development and improvement of all the outer, but more especially (owing to its contiguity to the old city) of the Oakland district.

Resolved, That we earnestly urge our members and particularly George Wilson, member from this district, to use all honorable means to defeat the retroversion bill now before the Legislature.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the efforts put forth by our City Council against retroversion, and request them to continue the same in behalf of our territorial limits, so that all the districts embraced now within the City of Pittsburgh remain intact.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

After addresses by Messrs. Craig, Magee, McCleane and McMasters, the meeting adjourned.

" No. 5, Streets.......	419 72
" No. 9, Cont'gt Fund	208 40

" No. 13, Gas.........	20 38
Total............................	$2116 40

In addition to the above it will be necessary to make provision for the payment of the city's portion of the canal sewer assessment, amounting to $11,066, and the final payment to A. B. Mc[illegible] on water works lot, $3,- [illegible] Quewan, [illegible] claims approved 333,34. Also $10,000 [illegible] February by Councils in January and [illegible] last, making the aggregate requirement of the city Treasury to the present time nearly $27,000.

For the purpose of providing means to meet the foregoing I respectfully ask the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That warrants be authorized to be drawn in payment of the foregoing bills as soon as money is provided for the purpose.

The report was accepted and the resolutions adopted.

REPORT OF THE WATER COMMITTEE.

Mr. Hartman, of the Water Committee, submitted the following report:

Your Committee on Water would respectfully report that, in pursuance of instructions from Councils, we entered into an investigation of the facts in relation to the increase alleged to have occurred by the late Superintendent of the Water Works, in his annual report, of one hundred per cent. in the consumption of water in the city since 1864, and we are assured that the assertion is unwarranted. An examination of said report leads us to believe that other assertions equally unwarranted were made, and we would ask for instructions to investigate.

Your Committee would report adversely to the petition for water on Cedar and Laurel alleys. The parties petitioning reside for the most part on Market street, and can be supplied by a pipe laid along said street, and we accordingly recommend that the pipe be laid thereon. We would also recommend that water pipes be laid on the streets hereafter mentioned, petitions for which were referred to us (except in the case of Beaver avenue and Locust street, along which it is necessary to lay pipe in order to reach Adams and Market streets,) as a personal inspection of the surroundings of the several streets satisfies us that it will pay the city to do so, and will at the same time be an accommodation to residents thereon. We would recommend further that the fire plugs petitioned for on Third street be put in.

We would recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, The Superintendent of the Water Works be and he is hereby directed to lay six inch water pipes on the following streets, viz:

Locust street from Beaver avenue to Market street.

Market street from Locust to Washington avenue.

Fayette street from Manhattan to Fulton.

Franklin street from Fulton to Chartiers.

Beaver street from Washington avenue to Adams street.

Adams street from Beaver avenue to Manhattan street.

Also, that he be and he is hereby directed to put in a fire plug on Third street, between East Lane and Chestnut street, at the most suitable point.

We would also recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the City Engineer be and he is hereby instructed to revise the maps of the city water pipes, making the size of all pipe laid, location of all stop cocks, fire plugs, wash outs, &c., up to the present time, and also to prepare a map of the streets of new wards for the use of the Superintendent's office, and that at the end of each year it shall be his duty to lay down on such map all pipe, stop cocks, fire plugs and wash outs that were put in during the year.

The report was accepted and the resolutions adopted.

Councils then went into joint session for the election of a Chief Engineer of the Fire Department.

The joint session having adjourned, Select Council convened and resumed business.

STREET RAILWAYS.

Mr. Gwinner, Chairman of the Committee on Street Railways, submitted the following report:

GENTLEMEN:—Your Committee on Street Railways would respectfully report that, having had referred to us a communication from the Federal street and Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway Company, accepting the provisions of an ordinance passed the 26th day of December, A. D. 1867, relating to said railway company, we reviewed said ordinance and suggest that the following modifications be made, to effect which we submit a new ordinance.

MODIFICATIONS.

Section first of the original ordinance provides that said company shall have the privilege of constructing switches on the streets; in the new this privilege is withheld.

Section eleventh provides that the ordinance shall not go into effect &c., until said Company have an act of Assembly incorporating them. This act having already been obtained, this provision is no longer necessary, and is therefore stricken out, and an additional section, twelfth, is added, prohibiting the running of freight cars on the road.

Respectfully submitted.

Mr. Myler offered the ordinance referred to in the above report, and moved its adoption.

Mr. Riddle offered the following amendment: "Provided the track be laid on the south side of North avenue, and that no sidings be placed on that street."

The ordinance as amended was passed finally. C. C. non-concurred. S. C. adhered and asked a Committee of Conference, and appointed Messrs. Myler and Hall. Messrs. Hanna, Tate and Megraw were appointed in Common Council.

REPORT OF THE STREET COMMITTEE.

Mr. Myler, Chairman of the Committee on Streets, submitted to the following report:

GENTLEMEN: Your Committee on streets beg leave to submit the following report in relation to matters referred to us by Councils:

Petition from the Eagle Cotton Mills Company for permission to erect scales for the weighing of coal on the side walk of Sandusky street, at the side of their mills. We submit an accompanying ordinance granting the prayer of the petition.

Report of viewers appointed to award damages and assess benefits occasioned by the widening of Washington avenue. Also, petition from the P. Ft. Wayne and C. R. W. Co., for a revision of the amount made by said owners. We have carefully examined said report, and being unable to discover wherein injustice has been done, we could recommend its confirmation.

Ordinance for the re-grading and paving of Young's alley. The ordinance provided for the re-grading and paving of said alley, at a grade which was not acceptable to the property owners thereon. A profile of a grade has, however, been prepared and is presented herewith which is objectional to none, and we would report the accompanying ordinance to re-grade and re-pave the alley at this grade.

Petition to open Perry street. We submit accompanying resolutions granting the prayer of the petitions.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The report was accepted.

The ordinance providing for the re-grading of Young's alley, with the accompanying profile of grade, was adopted.

The ordinance granting privilege to the Eagle Cotton Mill Company to erect scales on the sidewalk, on Sandusky street, was taken up.

Mr. Phillips wished to know if the scale was for the exclusive use of the Company. He wished that to be distinctly understood, and would offer an amendment to the ordinance to that effect.

Mr. Myler said he had no objection to the amendment.

Mr. Hall said that was just what he objected to. That he was opposed to allowing any company or individual to monopolize the sidewalk.

Mr. Myler said that it would not interfere with the sidewalk, as it was to be constructed on a level with the sidewalk, which at that place was paved with cobble stone.

Mr. Hall opposed the ordinance, because the city has no right to grant privilege to any one to block up the sidewalk.

Mr. J. C. Patterson said the scales would not make the matter any worse.

Mr. Riddle moved the ordinance be laid over until the next meeting.

Mr. Myler hoped the matter would not be deferred so long.

Mr. J. C. Patterson said he thought they should take a vote on the matter now, and if opposed to it, kill it, and not be afraid to show their hands.

Mr. Riddle said as the gentleman desired a vote on the matter, he would withdraw his motion to lay over, and move to lay it on the table. The motion was adopted.

The resolution to open Perry street was adopted.

Mr. Callery, a petition for water and gas pipe on Main street and Bank lane, in the Eighth ward. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Reiter presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Streets be instructed to report an ordinance for the grading and paving of Allegheny avenue from Webster avenue to Ridge street. Adopted.

The resolution to widen Sedgwick street, presented February 27th, and referred back to the Committee, was read and adopted.

Mr. Myler presented a draft of a proposed bill to provide for the assessment of damages occasioned by changes in street grades on all property benefited thereby.

The bill was prepared by the city Solicitor pursuant to a resolution of Councils February 27th, 1868. On motion of Mr. Myler the bill was laid on the table.

Mr. Myler presented the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Gas be, and are hereby instructed to have a gas lamp placed on Liberty street, midway between Chestnut and East lane. Referred to the Committee on Gas.

Mr. Riddle presented the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Markets, in connection with the Clerk of the Markets, be, and they are hereby instructed to report an ordinance designating some place where persons attending market can leave their vehicles during market hours.

Read and adopted.

Mr. J. C. Patterson offered the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Streets be, and are hereby instructed to report an ordinance providing for the paving of Allegheny avenue from Western avenue to the river.

Read and adopted.

Mr. C. D. Smith offered the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Streets be and they are hereby instructed to report an ordinance providing for the grading and paving of Park street, from Grant avenue to Sturgeon street. Read and adopted.

Mr. Hall presented the report of the City Engineer relative to the costs and expenses of sewers, and moved that it be received and ordered to be printed, and a copy furnished to each member. The motion was adopted.

Mr. Myler submitted, with the report of the Street Committee, an estimate of the cost of grading of certain streets, from which the following is an extract:

Cost of grading and paving Hamilton street, from Bidwell to Chartiers street, $12,754 89.

Cost of grading and paving Fayette street, from Bidwell to Fulton street, $15,376 00.

Common Council.

Members present: Messrs. Brown, Blair, Cutler, Comley, Clark, Dunham, Eyster, Fleming, Geyer, Hanna, Hochuly, Kennedy, Kunkle, Ley, Megraw, Mayer, McDonald, McNeill, Ober, Reed, Richardson, Saint, Tate, Voegtly, White and President Slagle.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CHIEF ENGINEER.

The President stated that Councils would now meet in joint session for the purpose of electing a Chief Engineer for the Fire Department.

The members of Select Council having taken seats in the Common Council chamber, the nominations were commenced.

Mr. Riddle nominated James Crow.

Mr. Cutler nominated G. H. Bonnaffon.

Mr. Phillips moved that Councils go into a caucus meeting. Lost.

Mr. Hanna entered into some remarks concerning the two candidates for the office, and asked Councils to weigh well their respective merits.

Mr. Hall rose to a point of order. He thought it was unfit to canvass Councils after the motion to proceed with the election had been made.

Mr. Cutler moved that the member from the First ward be allowed to proceed with his remarks.

The President decided against the motion, on the grounds that it was out of order.

Mr. Myler renewed the motion that Councils go into caucus. He said that many improper influences had been brought to bear in the contest.

Mr. Cutler seconded the motion.

The President decided that it was improper to go into caucus, whereupon an appeal was made from his decision.

President M'Brier took the floor and opposed the holding of a caucus. It was, in his estimation, in violation of the rules.

The yeas and nays were now called on the question of supporting the chair, and resulted forty-three yeas to six nays. The members voting in the negative were: Messrs. Myler, Phillips, Cutler, Clarke, Hanna and Kennedy.

The election was now proceeded with and resulted as follows:

Crow........30 | Bonnaffon......20

Those voting for Mr. Crow were: Messrs. Black, Brown, Callery, English, Faulkner, Gang, Gwinner, Hall, Jahn, Motheral, Riddle, Blair, Comley, Dunham, Geyer, Hastings, Hochuly, Kennedy, Kunkle, Ley, Mayer, McDonald, Ober, Reed, Richardson, Saint, Tate, Voegtly, White, Warner—30.

For Mr. Bonnaffon: Messrs. Hartman, Myler, Patterson J. C., Patterson A., Phillips, Reiter, Smith A. D., Smith W., Weise, Wettach, President McBrier, Brown, Cutler, Clark, Eyster, Fleming, Hanna, Megraw, McNeill and President Slagle—20.

Mr. Crow was accordingly declared duly elected, and Select Council members retired to their chambers.

STREET MATTERS.

Mr. Hanna offered a petition for the opening of an alley from Island lane to Franklin street, Second ward. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Cutler presented a petition for the grading and paving of Franklin street. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Comley presented a petition for a grade on Blossom alley. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Meyer presented a petition from residents on Beaver avenue asking that the lack of water on that thoroughfare be considered by Councils. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Tate presented a resolution asking for the erection of a gas lamp on the corner of Ledlie and Beaver streets. Referred to the Gas Committee.

Mr. Hanna presented a communication asking that the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company be compelled to erect a wall along the line at Seminary Hill. Referred to the Committee on Railroads.

MESSENGER'S SALARY INCREASED.

Mr. McDonald presented a resolution instructing an increase of the salary of the Messenger fifty dollars, in view of the additional labor incident to the consolidation of Duquesne Borough. The yeas and nays were called and resulted in the passage of the resolution by a vote of 14 to 12. S. C. concurred.

WANTS A GONG AND HOSE.

Mr. Voeghtly presented a resolution instructing the Committee on Fire Engines to provide the Ellsworth Hose Company with a gong, or else remove the nearest alarm for their convenience. Considerable discussion ensued on the resolution, the members of the Committee on Fire Engines maintaining that there is no necessity for this expense. The resolution was finally referred to the Committee.

Mr. Comley presented a resolution instructing the Committee on Fire Engines to provide five hundred feet of ten inch hose for the Ellsworth Hose Committee. Referred to Committee.

CHESTNUT STREET.

Mr. Cutler called up the petition of citizens presented at last meeting asking to be exempted from paying assessments for the grading of Chestnut street. The gentleman presented a resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee to investigate the matter.

Mr. Hanna moved to lay on the table. Lost; and the resolution was forthwith adopted. Messrs. Cutler, Comley, and McNeill, were appointed on the committee from Common Council.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ENGINES.

Mr. Megraw, Chairman of the Committee on Engines, submitted the following:

Your Committee on Engines beg leave to report the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Engines be and they are hereby authorized to advertise for and receive proposals for the Manhattan Hose Company, and to obtain plans for an engine house, to be erected on the lot recently purchased for that purpose in the Sixth Ward, and to purchase, at the best advantage, a wagon to be used by the fire department.

The report was received and the resolution adopted.

THE MARKETS.

Mr. Hanna, from the Committee on Markets, presented the following report for the month of February, which was received:

Duncan Dallas, clerk of markets.	$ 54 85
Geo. B. M'Multy Diamond scale.	272 84
J. B. M'Allister, Second ward do.	277 38

THE NEW PASSENGER RAILWAY.

Mr. Megraw, on the action of the Select Council restricting the Federal street and Mount Pleasant Valley Railroad from laying a double track or constructing any switch on North avenue, made a few remarks. He opposed this restriction, on the ground that it was not imposed with reference to other streets. He considered it was simply legislating for the rich residents on North avenue, no attention being paid to that of poorer people. He wanted a fair show for all.

Mr. Hanna said that the Company could construct its line wherever it might think proper, under the provisions of its charter.

Mr. Voegtly moved a non-concurrence with Select Council.

Mr. Megraw moved, as an amendment, to concur with Select Council in all except the prohibition of sidings on North Avenue. Carried by a vote of sixteen to eight.

The Select Council adhering to its former action, raised a Committee of Conference. The majority of the Committee reported in favor of concurring with Select Council.

Mr. Megraw said he was the minority, and he appealed to the good sense of Council to support him. He would never vote to prescribe the rights of one party over another.

Mr. Hastings also thought it would be best to leave the matter to the discretion of the company.

A motion was now made to receive the report of the [illegible] committee, and lost by a vote of fourteen to eight.

Adjourned.

Hoop Skirts and Long Dresses.

Several years ago, when Dr. Keyser was lecturing in Brant's Hall, Steubenville, on the use of mechanical appliances in the cure of disease, he was interrupted by the query: "What do you think of hoop skirts?" His subject that night was dress. Let no one suppose for a moment, said the Doctor, that I desire in any manner to quarrel with the prevailing fashions, especially that one to which my attention has been particularly invited by the querist in another part of the audience, and whilst I fain would do away with a great deal in the way of excess in the shape of long trails, which, like Reynard's tail in Æsop, served no other purpose than to sweep the ground, but on the contrary does a great deal of harm by absorbing the dank slush of the pavements and streets, and imparts a chill and a struggle to the currents of life as they circulate through the veins; whilst I cannot conceal from my mind the evil and baleful consequences of such a pernicious fashion, I remember too well that in my younger days, when half the burthen was lifted off the heavy buckets, broken in their weight and deprived of their heaviness, by the intervention of the hoop which was used in carrying the drink and sustenance to those engaged in harvesting the annual crops, I am inclined to favor the one and deprecate the other.

Female College Essay Contest.

To-night, as we have heretofore announced, the annual essay contest will take place at the Pittsburgh Female College, an occasion of very considerable interest. The exercises will be interspersed with vocal and instrumental music, which will contribute much to the evening's entertainment. In order that those attending from the suburbs may not suffer inconvenience, it is arranged to close the exercises in season to permit them to return home by the late trains. Tickets of admission can be obtained at the music stores and also at the doors.

The College is just closing a most prosperous term. The spring term will open on the 23d instant under very flattering prospects.

More of Them.

Three more cases of mysterious disappearance are reported.

A young man, in the employ of Jacob Elseper, shoemaker, of Lawrenceville, has not been seen or heard of since Saturday last.

Henry Alley, aged fifty-five years, residing with the family of W. E. Curry, on Ledlie street, Allegheny, having disposed of some property, on the 28th ult. started out the Steubenville road to see the purchaser for the purpose of securing some three hundred dollars due on the purchase, stating that he would return the same evening; but nothing has since been heard of him.

Stephen Riley left his house, 148 Magee street, on the 10th inst., since when no tidings have been received of him. His mind is said to have been deranged.

A Summary Collection.

Stephen O'Donnell made information before Mayor Blackmore, yesterday, charging Thomas Williams with larceny. He alleges that he was at the Red Lion Hotel, and was about paying his bill. He took from his pocket ten five dollar bills and when handing them over the counter Williams snatched them and made off, saying that it was just the amount that O'Donnell owed him. He also threatened to kill him if he asked for it, in consequence of which the information for surety of the peace was made. A warrant was issued and the officers are on his track.

Land Slide.

About nine A. M. yesterday a large mass of earth and rock fell from the hill side in the rear of McCully's glass house, in Monongahela borough, completely covering the bed of the Pan Handle Railroad and damaging the tressle work. Travel on the road was suspended and passengers transferred to Union depot in omnibusses. The obstruction was speedily removed and necessary repairs made.

Alleged Wife Beater.—Bridget McGuire, a resident of 58 Fountain street, made information before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, charging her husband, Thomas McGuire, with assault and battery, in which she alleges that he beat and abused her. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Gilbert M. McMaster, Esq., recently appointed Notary Public for the city of Pittsburgh, having filed his bond and received his commission, has entered upon the duties of his appointment at 98 Grant street. We wish him all success.

Another Skillful Operation.—A gentleman from West Virginia, who had been entirely deaf for nineteen years, applied to Dr. Aborn, 134 Smithfield street, yesterday, and by a simple operation, without the slightest pain, had his hearing restored.

Cross Suits.—Jacob Byerly and Andrew Shehan made information against each other yesterday, before Mayor Blackmore, for surety of the peace. Warrants were issued.

Surety of The Peace.—Margaret Douglass made information against her husband, Simon Douglass, for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued.

"The United Presbyterian."

It affords us much pleasure to call the attention of our readers, and especially the business men of our community, to the advertisement of the United Presbyterian, which will be found on the second page of this morning's GAZETTE. There is no religious periodical that comes to our table that we prize more highly. It is increasing constantly in influence and circulation, and has now a subscription list that will compare favorably with any journal of the same kind in the country. It circulates very largely in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, as well as the towns and villages of Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio, West Virginia, and we may say, the States of the Union generally. It is therefore in our opinion one of the very best advertising mediums, and as such we very cordially commend it to the favorable notice of our business men. It has been found from experience that printers' ink must be used freely by merchants and manufacturers who desire to succeed well, and we know of no weekly periodical through which they can further their interests better than the advertising columns of the United Presbyterian. It is scarcely necessary to add that it is under the editorial management of that most amiable, talented and worthy Christian gentleman, Rev. D. R. Kerr, D. D. The business department is managed by H. J. Murdoch, Esq., a gentleman deservedly popular among all who have ever had dealings with the office, and pre-eminently qualified for the position, owing to his intimate and practical acquaintance with journalism. For terms, &c., address, or call in person on H. J. MURDOCH & Co., 74 Third street, Pittsburgh.

The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine—Opening of a New Office at No 51 Fifth Street.

The worth and general excellence of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines is almost universally acknowledged in this section of country where they have been so long in practical use. In spite of the competition and of the new machines thrown upon the market as aspirants for public favor and recognition, the Grover & Baker instruments have held their own on pure merit, and have given the utmost satisfaction wherever used. They are capable of performing all descriptions of needlework, embroidery, &c., in a manner vastly superior to hand work, as it is neat, uniform and strong, and will prove as durable as the material it binds or joins together. The demand for these justly celebrated machines has been great in all parts of the country, and has compelled more ample facilities to be provided by the Company to keep apace with the orders flowing in from all sections. Here in Pittsburgh the branch agency has entered into occupancy of the commodious and elegant salesroom, No. 51 Fifth street, over McCallum's carpet rooms in the recently erected and magnificent iron building belonging to the McCallum Brothers. Mr. James Tredwell, late of Philadelphia, has assumed the management of the affairs of the Company here, and will be found a fair dealing and courteous gentleman. A large supply of machines of all sizes, together with Grover & Baker's machine sewing silk, spool cotton, needles, &c., has been received to properly supply the trade here. Circulars containing samples will be sent free on application by mail. We bespeak for Mr. Tredwell a continuance of the large share of patronage hitherto awarded the agency of the popular Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company in this city.

We Invite Personal Examination.

Judging from the amount received it is evident that the Weed Sewing Machine is all the go with the ladies. Notwithstanding the hard times they should not hesitate in buying the Weed, as it not only saves in labor but in health and economy. It is the most simple, durable, compact and beautiful piece of mechanism ever presented to the public. By calling at No. 112 Grant street, Pittsburgh, or at any of the agencies which are established in the various counties, persons can be accommodated in price and terms. See advertisement in another column for list of agents.

"Cut" on the Bill.—F. Schumacker is charged before Alderman Strain, on oath of Henry Myers, with obtaining goods under false pretences. It is alleged that the accused, by certain false representations, obtained groceries to the amount of $150, which he refuses to pay. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

House Robbery.—The house of Mr. Charles Jeremy, corner of Wylie and Logan streets, Sixth ward, was entered during Wednesday, in daylight, and one hundred dollars in money, rings, and other jewelry of the value of seventy-five dollars taken from a bureau drawer.

Y. M. C. A.—The members of the Young Men's Christian Association are requested to call at the Rooms, No. 23 Fifth street, before the 20th instant, and settle their annual dues for the present fiscal year. tf.

FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1868.

A SPECTACLE FOR THE WORLD.

The Capitol of the American People presents at this time a spectacle more impressive in its majestic solemnity, and more pregnant with significance to the philosopher and statesman, than any ever before witnessed in the history of Nations.

The entire power of thirty-five millions of people, of a people the most mighty in all the elements of sovereign strength among the nations of the earth—a power which has a continent for its seat, and rules, directly or indirectly, one half of the globe,—is gathered to-day in one small chamber of its Capitol and sits in deliberation upon a question so vital that it solely and immediately concerns its own existence now and the perpetuation of its liberties hereafter. In that chamber are gathered all the insignia of its National dignity—the scroll of its Law, the Executive Sword and the Scales of its Justice. And high up above them all,—emblem of the source from which all National power and dignity must spring, and typical of the last supreme earthly tribunal in which the Judges themselves are to be judged—we may see the Urn of the People, the simple Ballot-Box. Clustered under its protecting shadow, the three departments of the government, comprehending the complete body of its imperial power, are met together for the first time in its history, to sit in judgment upon accusations against its Chief Magistrate.

Words are inadequate to depict the dignity, the solemnity and the thrilling simplicity of the scene. The first impeachment of an American President, before his only peers, the other two coordinate branches of the Government of the Republic, will be a theme that poets cannot do justice to, a subject that canvass can never adequately represent. No scope of language, no skill of the painter can grasp the idea or fitly and faithfully bring to human comprehension all the wonderful beauty, the sublime grandeur of the scene.

History will record, in pages unparalelled in all the annals of the world, that, for the first time, a great Nation, without revolution or anarchy, without tumult or bloodshed, or strife, without the least suspension of the daily avocations of its citizens, without even a fear for its present well ordered peace, or an apprehension for the future quiet of its people, has called its Chief Magistrate to an account which may end with tearing off his official robes and degrading him below the lowest and meanest of its citizens.

No foreign war, no intestine rebellion, neither the terrible conflicts which NAPOLEON precipitated upon the civilized world, nor the sanguinary convulsions which have dethroned emperors, uncrowned kings, and drenched society in rapine and murder, in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries, could supply to the historian an example more conspicuous, or teach to the students of political science a more encouraging lesson in the progress of Christendom. In the history of England, our motherland, alone have been found any examples—and these but imperfect at best—of a great and free people, moving successfully in the name of the violated law, to depose its bad government and raise new rulers to power. Each of its movements were resisted with arms, but nevertheless the pr[illegible]nciple was ultimately vindi[illegible] [illegible]ated that the Good of the S[illegible]ate should not be trampled upon with impunity in the interests of dynasties or to serve the selfish ambition of the Chief Magistrate. But history affords no other examples, since the foundation of civil society, of such a change of rulers simply for the assertion of a great truth and not for personal ends It has remained for our own Republic, developing on this new continent the principles of popular liberty to their fullest expansion, to present at this time the first perfect spectacle of a lawful revolution, inaugurated, conducted and concluded in the most absolute security of peace, to maintain an outraged right.

And all these millions, free, brave, skilled by sad experience in every use of arms for scientific warfare, and no small number of whom sympathize with the great offender, and have already pardoned his crimes as committed in their cause, look quietly on and bow to the majestic supremacy of the Law which their fathers established, and which this day claims its uninterrupted functions.

The spectacle now challenges and will win the admiration of the world, and hereafter for all time, it will be known as the most wonderful event in the records of Human Justice.

A FEW LIBERIAN FACTS.

As the Legislature of our Commonwealth has recently passed a bill requesting Congress to establish a line of subsidized steamers between this country and Liberia, a few facts in regard to that much talked of, far distant, and slightly known country, will be apropos and interesting. From the letter of Mr. E. J. MORRIS, of Philadelphia, the reading of which caused the passage of the bill, we cull the following: He says that Liberia has an Ocean front of six hundred miles, and a population of four hundred thousand people. English is freely and usually spoken, the interior influence is being widely extended by the admission of native Chiefs to the Legislature, and the present products of the country are sufficient to support four millions of population. Wild animals have been destroyed or driven to the interior, emigrants from America are the ruling classes, and there is a good republican government, with numerous schools and churches. Monrovia, the capital, has two thousand five hundred inhabitants, while the principal river has seven feet of water on its bar at low water. Rare timber, dye woods, copal, gum, pepper, ginger, indigo, ivory, gold dust, coffee, rice, palm oil, and other valuable articles, are the products of the country, which is diversified and covered in many places with valuable forests. Cotton, sugar cane, and many American vegetables, are easily raised. There are thirty thousand square miles in the Republic, and the people are contented. It is necessary to become acclimatized just as it is in many of our own Gulf States; but, on the whole, the country is a desirable one to live in, and an excellent one to make money in or from. Last year alone six hundred thousand dollars worth of palm oil were exported from it. It is thought that a line of steamers would pay in the end, and would take out many passengers.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

SOONER OR LATER. By Shirley Brooks, author of the "Silver Cord," "The Gordion Knot," etc. With illustrations by G. Du Maurier. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, 71 and 73 Fifth street, Pittsburgh.

This publication is a story of modern English life, and is thought to be Mr. Brook's best work. A rich flowing, lively style pervades its pages throughout. It contains specimens of character-painting of a very high order, and these personages are described in words of great beauty and force. It is a story portrayed which sparkles with interest, and one too, full of sharp sayings. It contains fourteen illustrations, by Du Maurier, of much beauty. We look for a large sale.

HUNTED DOWN; and other reprinted pieces. By Charles Dickens. People's Edition. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers. Pittsburgh: W. A. Gildenfenney.

Brief as many of these reprinted pieces are, there is unmistakable evidence of the extraordinary talent of Dickens as a writer stamped upon them. Diversified as they are, there is a charm about them that claims the homage of the admirers of the great novelist. Now that this edition, so well named the "People's," is nearly completed, we commend it to book buyers who desire an elegant set, substantial and yet not too expensive.

THREE LITTLE SPADES. By Anna Warner, author of "Dollars and Cents," &c. New York: Harper and Brothers. Pittsburgh: Henry Miner, 71 and 73 Fifth street.

Here we have a charming little story by one who has lived among flowers all her life. The object is to encourage the young to love flowers and gardening. The story is presented in such fascinating words that it glows with beauty and freshness. Such works are calculated to lift young minds up to higher life, while treating of nature, natures God is seen and felt in his majestic power. It cannot help being useful, as well as instructive, and we hope such publications will be multiplied fourfold.

NEW GRAMMAR OF FRENCH GRAMMARS. With numerous Exercises and Examples. By Dr. V. De Fivas, M. A., F. E. I. S., Member of Grammatical Society of Paris, etc. New York: D. Appleton & Co. Pittsburgh: Davis, Clark and Co.

A book of this kind is much needed for the use of colleges, schools, and private students because it embraces the substance of all the most approved French Grammars extant. Quite a number of French Grammars have been published for the use of English students, which usually lack conciseness, and simplicity. The plan of this publication, however, is to give everything useful and not to load it down with superfluous matter. Rules to guide the student are presented in a new light and simplified to the capacity of youthful persons. The Exercises are complete. It is a work up to the progressive ideas of the age.

NORWOOD; OR VILLAGE LIFE IN NEW ENGLAND. By Henry Ward Beecher. For sale by Davis, Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

The enterprising publishers, C. Scribner & Co., of New York, have sent us an advance copy of this publication, which appeared in the New York Ledger. It will be published on Saturday, the 24th. Perhaps no work of this character has been so unmercifully criticised as this one, and yet the more it was assailed the more popular it became. Its publication in book form will be gratifying to thousands; and, at the low price of $1 50. The paper is pearly white, type clear and bright, and makes a stout volume of 550 pages. We may make extracts hereafter.

PETERSON'S CHEAP EDITIONS OF DICKENS' AND SCOTT'S WORKS.

The publishers have sent us, through W. A. Gildenfenney, Fifth street, "The Holy Tree Inn and other Sketches," by Dickens, being the eighteenth book of an entire new edition of Dickens' works, price twenty-five cents; and "Guy Mannering," the fourth of the series of Sir Walter Scott's works, at the low price of twenty five cents. One of the happy effects of these publications, at such rates, will be to supercede the so-called literary scum that has heretofore been circulating so extensively.

D. APPLETON & CO.'S POPULAR EDITIONS OF DICKENS' AND SCOTT'S WORKS.

We have received "David Copperfield" and the "Old Curiosity Shop" of the Dickens' edition, and "Ivanhoe," of the Waverly Novels. These books, like those just noticed, are suspisingly cheap. Paper good, type small, but clear, with neatly trimmed edges, and quite portable. Readers of these popular authors have an opportunity of judging of the excellencies of both editions, and to mark the difference. Henry Miner has these books for sale.

REBELLION RECORD. Published by D. Van Nostrand, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, 71 and 73 Fifth street.

Part seventy-one has been [illegible] containing portraits [illegible] of Major General Jeff. C. Davis and Major General F. C. Barlow. It still maintains its interest.

CONSOLIDATION.

EDITORS GAZETTE: On the subject of Consolidation your correspondent "Liberty," in Wednesday's issue, furnishes an exhibit of the relative area of the old city and of the townships recently added, and thence deduces that the city should be added to the townships, rather than the townships to the city. He also shows the relative voting population of the old city and the added districts, seeming to overlook the argument of the large vote in favor of Consolidation, and to see only and deprecate sorely the helplessness of the few in the townships to prevent the extension of the city limits over their estates, and to advocate the passage of a law, the effect of which would be to delay annexation until the outlying districts shall vote to come in, and the City Councils to receive them. Allow me, Messrs. Editors, to loan my spectacles to your correspondent "Liberty," and such as he, or in other words, tell them all how this matter of Consolidation—seen through my glasses—looks. "Liberty" looks to me as a man whose residence and little farm are in Liberty township, who may own or partly own some store or factory in the old city, or may be just outside of its municipal limits—who has begun poor and grown rich. Or like a professional man, say a lawyer, who has out of a number of years of lucrative practice at the bar in Pittsburgh accumulated a fortune, and retired to live on a ten or twenty acre farm in one of the annexed townships. Or he may be an old farmer, who many years ago purchased and has continued to reside on his farm in the afflicted township. Now, while I see all these persons, and see them demanding legislation to detach them from the city, claiming to be the victims of great injustice by the annexation of their rural estates to the city, I think I see with equal distinctness that in each of the cases mentioned the individual is largely debtor to the city, in any fair and equitable balance sheet made from the account current of the reciprocities of good and evil between them. But for the large city, with its aggregate of population and wealth, its varied pursuits, activities and enterprises, the wealthy merchant or manufacturer, or lawyer, now enjoying his otium cum dignitate on the soil of Liberty, or Collins, or Peebles township, might have remained in his primitive poverty and obscurity, or gone elsewhere to achieve his fortune. And but for the growth of the city in wealth and population, the afflicted old farmer, over whose acres it now claims jurisdiction, would have remained in statu quo, the distance to town two or three miles farther, the market price of his crops only a quarter or half those now current, and the price of his land, as formerly, twenty to forty dollars, in place of $500, or $1,000, or $2,000, per acre, which he demands now from any citizen of the growing city who seeks a rural home. As I see it, these men all desire to keep out of town until the town actually overwhelms them, in its hunger for more town lots. And then, these rural gentlemen don't want a corps of city engineers to invade their privacy; they prefer making ready for the advancing population themselves, and think it better that each land owner in the contiguous townships should lay out and subdivide his estate into lots and streets, and that the future city should be an aggregration or conglomeration of a multitude of individual plans of subdivision and streets, than that these districts should be comprehended in a general city plan, throughout whose entire area the place of future streets and avenues should now be determined by skilful topographical engineers, and all these land owners obliged in their divisions and sales of property to conform to a well digested, pre-existant city plan.

I can see no hardship, no injustice, in all this. You can probably not name one of these distressed gentlemen, who is so much aggrieved and damaged, of whom it would not be safe to prediate that he would gladly relinquish or pay one-half the value of his entire estate in these townships, rather than see the "old city" restored to its status of forty years ago, or even thirty years ag[illegible], when the writer remembers Mr. Jacob Ewart purchased his estate at Minersville—then Pitt township—not paying more for an hundred acres than two acres will now readily command. Mr. Ewart is discreet, sagacious and diligent in the management of his own affairs; but with all these helps, he owes nine-tenths of the wonderful appreciation, not to his own efforts or expenditure, but to the active, bustling, growing city which is now ready to stretch over and absorb his estate, not to his injury, but to his very great advantage.

I look again through my glasses, stretching my vision over all the vast field proposed for the future city, and can see nothing to oppose or counterbalance the great advantages of Consolidation. Especially is there no speck of hardship or injustice to those to be brought in, nor would there be if they were to be taxed in common with the "old city" for the debt of the old city. The estates in the townships adjacent have been quite as generally and largely benefited by the expenditures of the city, as the city itself. The expenditures for railroads, for water works, for pavements, for market houses, &c., have made the city: the city has made the country, which immediately surrounds it, what it is. The lands in these rural suburbs would sell for enough more than the same number of acres in like proximity to Butler, or Greensburg, or Uniontown, or Washington, in the adjacent counties, to pay off the entire debt of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and all the boroughs, and, if only, but the excess would build the new City Hall, the proposed new water works, and in addition finish all our unfinished railroads, including the Chartiers Valley, the Connellsville to Cumberland, the Allegheny Valley to a connection with the New York and Erie, the Mahoning Valley, &c. If this be so, surely there is nothing harsh or unfair in requiring these districts to come in, and when in, to pay, with the rest, their full share of all taxes. Indeed, if these grumblers could see "themselves as others see them," they would not have the face to complain of the easy terms on which they have been incorporated with the city—the very author and source of the great value of their lands, surpassing that of lands in like contiguity to any city in the United States. JUSTICE.

Pates de Foie Gras.

A Paris paper gives some curious particulars about this delicacy, of which 2,600,000fr. worth is consumed in that city every Winter. Most of these pies come from Bergerac, Agen, Perigueux Bordeaux and Strasbourg, but a few are also mode in Paris. It has been asserted that these pies were common among the ancients, and that Pliny mentions them; but it appears that a Norman of the name of Close, who was Marshal de Contade's steward at Strasbourg, invented the pie in question in 1780. M. de Contades was soon after superseded by Marshal de Stinville, but Close continued to make the pies, and never failed to place them on his new master's table; but to his great discomfiture, M. de Stinville, who was not particular about his dinner, ate them as he would have done anything else, with the greatest indifference. Close, who had expected high ecomiums for his culinary talents, was so deeply offended at his supreme contempt for his masterpiece, that he resigned his post, in which, however, he had managed to accumulate a tolerable capital. He opened a shop in the Rue Mesange, and there sold his pies to the public, his establishment being the first of the kind in France. He became a rich man, and would have died a happy one had not, a few years later, in 1792, a man of the name of Doyen, at Bordeaux, improved the pie by the addition of truffles. This was too much; not unlike his great predecessor Vatel, Close took the misfortune to heart, and could not survive the defeat—he died of grief. Of all the terrines now so sought after by the gastronomic Parisians, that improperly called the terrine de Nerac is considered the best. These truffled pies, however, do not come from Nerac, but from Agen and a curious circumstance, which, perhaps, has contributed to their fame is this, that contrary to custom, the dishes containing them are without any address or indication of the maker.

Will Napoleon Give up the Game?

A rumor obtains in Paris that the Emperor will soon publish another letter, of the same tenor as the famous one last year in which reforms were promised, which were not, after all, granted. Its appearance, it is said, will be the signal for the resignation of M. Rouher, who, rumor adds, will be charged with the duty of forming a responsible ministry after the English pattern.

Those who credit this report, say that the Emperor is turning liberal in order to check the zeal of his own party; that the reactionaries are carrying things too far for him; and that he finds himself compelled, in self-defence, to make up with the liberals.

It is possible that Napoleon, in infirm health, seeing himself beaten in Mexico, Italy and Gemany, and alarmed at the ill-luck which has attended his schemes, feels like giving up the great game which he has so long tried to play, of rule or ruin. But it is pretty certain that the liberals who trust him will get cheated, and that France will enjoy neither liberty nor an economical administration while he remains on the throne.

Is Consumption Contagious.

Popular belief has generally been on the side of the contagiousness of pulmonary consumption. In southern Europe, it is a part of sanitary legislation to destroy the clothes and bedding of those who have died of this disease. Until recently, the opinions of medical men have leaned to the other side. Experiments and observations now being made in Europe seem to show that tubercle introduced by inoculation into the body of a healthy animal will give rise to tuberculosis, or the formation and deposit of the like matter in the tissues and organs. Dr. Gerhard terminates his paper on the treatment of continued fevers by some remarks on the transmission of pulmonary consu[illegible]ption from one person to another, when sleeping in [illegible] same bed. He says: "I should set down the probability of consumption occurring to persons thus exposed to contagion, as husband and wife, two sisters or two brothers, sleeping together in close rooms, to be at least three-fold greater than ordinary, if they be long exposed to inhale the exhalations from one patient to another."

—General Grant wrote a letter to Senor Romero, of Mexico, February 3d, which has been published in New Orleans. He says it was and is his particular wish to visit Mexico during the present winter, but he will not be able to do so now. He says, nevertheless, he will go after the election—at all events as soon as matters are properly arranged and everything goes on well.

—Gen. Sickles has not, as reported, been ordered by the President to report to his regiment. The mistake arose from the fact that Lt. Col. Sikes, of the 5th Infantry, had been ordered to report to the Fifth Military District Commander, to assume command of the 20th regiment, lately commanded by Gen. Steele, deceased.

—In the plot to assassinate President Juarez, of Mexico, the Cabinet were included.

MENTAL DEPRESSION.

Mental depression is a disease of the nervous system, and, of all the ills flesh is heir to, it is the one that excites the least sympathy. It is a subject of frequent jests, and is called by various derisive terms; but, although it is often laughed at, it is not easy to laugh the patient out of the belief that his ills are all real, for it is a real disorder—the general features of which are constant fear, anxiety and gloom. The external senses, as well as the mental faculties, often manifest symptoms of derangement. Noise, as of falling water and ringing in the ears are complained of, while black specks and fiery sparks frequently flit before the vision. Admonitions like these should not be disregarded, as they may, if neglected, terminate in insanity. The seat of the disease is in the brain and nervous system, and to control the malady it is necessary to use a powerful tonic and alterative, which will correct and tone those organs without inflaming the brain. This is the secret of the success of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in cases of this kind, for which it is the safest as well as the best of restoratives. In fact it is the only pure and reliable tonic thus far known. Many nostrums purporting to be tonics, are put up from time to time in the newspapers, but the sufferer had better let them alone. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS has proven itself, by many years of trial, to be in every respect what it is represented to be.

Chronic Diseases

The functions of the human body give way, usually one at a time. A disordered liver, or a slight irritation of the bronchial tubes, an obstruction in the skin or of the renal organs, are sure to be followed by pains and aches in various parts, according to the extent of the organic or functional injury. A man afflicted with dyspepsia will soon find more than the stomach at fault. The food that he swallows fails to renew the natural wear and waste, the worn out matter is deposited in some nook or cranny, where it causes irritation or pain, when it ought to be thrown off and carried out of the system. Hundreds and thousands of just such sufferers have been relieved and restored to health and vigor by a few bottles of DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER, which not only imparts tone to the stomach and digestive organs, but likewise enriches the blood with the elementary principles needful to the restoration of the vital energy of the system. Be careful when you ask for it to get DR. KEYSER'S, for that is the kind, and the only kind, that has cured the numberless cases of disordered and broken constitutions. It was that which cured Mr. Boyd. It was that which cured John Titzell. It was that which cured Margaret McFarland. It was Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher which cured all the old chronic cases which we have published from time to time in these columns. Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher has cured more cases of chronic diseases than any medicine of recent origin. Sold by the gross, dozen, or single bottle, at the Doctor's great medicine store, No. 140 WOOD STREET.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

The largest daily paper in the State of Pennsylvania, enters the 82nd year of its existence with increased facilities for disseminating the current news of the day, and for rendering good political service in the important Presidential Canvass of 1868. The forthcoming session of Congress promises to prove one of the most important held since the formation of the Government, and the proceedings will be anxiously watched by the intelligent masses. In view of the deep interest centered in the proceedings, the proprietors of the GAZETTE have made arrangements for daily dispatches and letters during the session, from a highly intelligent correspondent, who enjoys the confidence and friendship of the leading members of the Senate and House, the heads of the various Departments, and the leading politicians who frequent Washington, so that readers can depend on receiving the first, fullest and most reliable intelligence from the seat of Government.

The proceedings of the State Legislature, at its forthcoming session, will also prove interesting, inasmuch as many questions of importance will come up for legislation. The GAZETTE will keep at the State Capital, during the entire session, an intelligent and faithful correspondent, who will promptly report the proceedings by mail and telegraph.

It is the only political journal of Pittsburgh which faithfully reflects and steadily advocates the principles held by the Union Republican Party, and interpreted by a loyal Congress.

It gives as much reading matter as any paper sold at twelve dollars per annum, while its price is but eight, being the cheapest as well as the largest newspaper in the Commonwealth.

With the enlargement, every department has been strengthened. The high character of its editorial columns will be maintained, and all questions of public importance will be fearlessly discussed.

The news department will be kept up to the requirements of the day, and in condensed items will faithfully mirror all the transactions worthy of note of the City, State, Country and world at large, and maintain for the GAZETTE the reputation of a live, enterprising and first class family and commercial newspaper.

Ample space has been reserved for market reports, which can at all times be relied upon as correct, as the current quotations for manufactures, farm products, cattle, &c., &c., are daily gathered from actual sales, by faithful and efficient reporters.

The river news is collected with care, and will prove a very interesting feature of the GAZETTE.

The financial news department has been placed in charge of an able and experienced banker, who will render it quite an attractive and useful specialty to bankers, brokers and business men generally.

The religious department will receive the attention due its importance, and will be so conducted as to be pleasing and readable to members of all religious denominations.

The agricultural, art, science, literary, personal and other departments of the paper will be conducted in a manner which will prove satisfactory to the reader.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size as the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the house of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives each week forty solid columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the daily, and a choice selection of literary and scientific items, together with everything important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to find favor with the farmer and gardener. The market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are by common consent acknowledged to be the standard authority for both buyers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The files of the GAZETTE are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county, as reference in important issues, to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute.

Our Agents will favor us by getting up their clubs at once, and not allowing their present ones to expire, as we are anxious that none of our readers should be deprived of a week's news. Additions to clubs can be made at any time, at yearly rates. Postmasters and Merchants are requested to act as Agents.

THE SAILOR'S WEDDING.

I.

"O, loitering ship!" a sailor cried,
"Now speed me home to wed my bride!"
The ship, through flying spray,
Went bounding on her way.

II.

"O, midnight bells! my watch is done;
O, happy morrow! haste thy sun."
Then down he lay and slept,
And in his dream he wept.

III.

He dreamed that suddenly the waves
Stood fixed and green, like churchyard graves.
And then a mournful bell
Rang out a funeral knell.

IV.

"Land ho!" the deck watch called, with cheers;
The sleeper wakened from his tears.
"O, day of joy!" he said;
"This night shall I be wed."

V.

With eager feet he leaped ashore,
And stood at Mary's cottage door;
The bride, in white all dressed,
Was in her grave at rest.

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.

A new and novel arrangement for having

HOT WATER BOILERS

attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste blaze which goes up the stove-pipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on any No. 7 or 8 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Sibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to

MEDICAL.

A GREAT

CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what it was to be free from the disease. I had to sit up in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt life a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 11th of October, 1866, having heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband, Joseph Meyers, but I must confess, with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. Dr. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care I would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am to-day in vigorous health, and TOTALLY FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in awhile, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, and if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother,)
GEORGIANA FISHER.

Birmingham, Dec. 9, 1867.

The cure of Mrs. Myers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks, their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured, and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

SIGHT RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his kindness and skill in restoring her to ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him, through her brother, SIMON P. FISHER, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.

We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated.

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of person who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health, and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that have to your advertisement of the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of George Ford, carpenter, of No. 16 Sampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there a called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having heard of cures made by DR. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and the perseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by Dr. Keyser was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.

GEORGE FORD.

PITTSBURGH, March 30, 1867.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

STATEMENT OF JOHN G. WIGHAM, OF TURTLE CREEK, ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1866, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough and fell away in strength and flesh and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood and, afterwards, to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DOCTOR KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases like mine had been highly spoken of and put myself under his treatment. The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under Dr. Keyser's medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved and my chest, where it was sunken away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment and medicines.

THURSDAY, March 12.—In the case of Joseph Fisher, Daniel Gordon and John Henry Clark, colored men, indicted for riot and felonious assault and battery, on oath of John and Alfred Gabby, the jury found a verdict of not guilty of riot, but guilty of misdemeanor in unlawfully wounding John Gabby, and also of feloniously shooting Alfred Gabby. Sentence deferred. Motion for a new trial.

In the case of David Shaffer, toll keeper on the Saw Mill Run ferry boats, indicted for larceny as bailee, the jury found a verdict of not guilty.

Peter Nardie, confined in jail on a charge of rape, was discharged on giving bail in the sum of two thousand dollars for his appearance for trial.

Charles Miller, charged with the larceny of articles from the auction store of Palmer & Phillips, was also released from imprisonment on giving bail in $300 for his appearance for trial.

Jacob Beisel was indicted for felonious assault and battery on oath of George Schmally. The parties are residents of Elizabeth township, and in January last had a difficulty, in which the defendant snapped a gun at the prosecutor. The jury acquitted of the felony charged, but convicted of misdemeanor in unlawfully attempting to shoot the prosecutor.

Matthew and Enoch Seidle, father and son, toll takers on the Perrysville road, were indicted for assault and battery on oath of Adam Beninger, alleged to have been committed in December last. The prosecutor and his wife, with two other women, were taking a sleigh ride, and a difficulty occurred about toll. The elder Seidle used violent language and flourished a pistol, while the son drew down the gate pole, which fell violently between the seats of the sleigh, severely injuring two of the women. On trial.

Capt. John D. M'Lanahan, charged by Uzziah Stewart with aggravated assault and battery, was allowed to put in a plea of guilty of assault and battery. Sentence deferred.

Pittsburgh Style.

In Paris the fashions are said to be governed by and invented for the whims of the Queen's of the demi monde. Brummel and Count D'Orsay set the fashion for years in London. In New York, dependence for things new and strange is put on the mandates of the world across the waters, but here in Pittsburgh we have a board of censors, which, judging by appearance, wields a tremendous power. What young man who owns a tall silk hat of the latest mould does not, as he puts it on, dread the coming criticisms and jeers of the corner junta? or perhaps he feels that it is very doubtful that the hat will escape personal violence during its journey. Where is the creature of heroic mould who dares defy these critics by wearing clothes that would be considered stylish in any other city? Where is the youth who does not quake when carrying the cane which, in our sister cities, where neither gas nor police in sufficient quantities are provided, is often necessary as a weapon of defence against the self-same censors who sometimes bo coming drunk with their almost unlimited power and bad whisky, think assault and battery necessary to enforce their edicts against any such vanities? If any young man can be found bold enough to do all these things without trembling, we think he ought to be recommended as a proper person for commander of the President's new military district.

This cringing to the tastes of the crowds which impede, if they do not ornament, the principal corners of the cities here, becomes a second nature at last, and we behold the result in our solid men. No other city can show a finer looking, more substantial or intelligent looking set of men than can Pittsburgh. But, then, they look seedy; they do not take proper personal pride in their own appearance. We have actually heard a prominent Pittsburgh merchant doubt the identity of a prominent banker doing business in New York and Liverpool, when pointed out to him, because, forsooth, he was too well and stylishly dressed for a solid man. Well made clothes cost little, if any, more than slouchy ones, and look a great deal better. Now that Mayor Blackmore has undertaken to remove our Board of Critics and to supply us with police, we hope that Birmingham and Allegheny will follow suit, and that then better taste in dress, and less occasion for the carrying of canes by young men, will gradually be noticeable in our streets. At any rate, there is abundant room for these changes, and they would improve the appearance of our city vastly.

A correspondent says: Oil City will not grow as it has grown; it is but a few years old, and leaped into the present position on the back of the rapid oil excitement. Three railroads, or branches, converge here, affording good shipping facilities, though Reno is an equally used point. The country is untamed and skeletons of derricks stand like tombstones over deserted wells; yet much of the forelorn look worn by the country is attributable to winter bleakness. In the green time of summer, with new clothes and washed face, I really concede that Western Pennsylvania must be beautiful as well as useful.

Filial Affection.—Michael Barrett made information before Mayor Blackmore, yesterday, charging his son, Thos. Barrett, with assault and battery. He alleges that the young rascal evinced his affection for his paternal ancestor by beating and abusing him. A warrant was issued for the young hopeful.

Allegheny County Home.

The Grand Jury visited the County Home yesterday. Regretting our inability to accompany the jury, we turn to the annual report of the County Controllers for 1867, which embraces the report of the Directors of the Home, in which are fully set forth the receipts, expenditures and general administration of this model institution, under the direction of Messrs. R. H. Davis, Moses Chess and John F. Dravo. The large building, with all its wards and apartments, is kept in the most perfect order. Perfect cleanliness is maintained through all the departments, and the sanitary condition could not be better. The grounds adjacent to the buildings are laid out with much taste in walks and lawns, with clumps of trees and shady arbors, and the broad fields of the Home farm are kept up to the standard of the best culture, and made to yield large crops of the cereals, with a variety of garden stuff, beef, pork and poultry for the use of the inmates. We know of no similar institution in the State better adapted to its objects, or more economically and thoroughly managed, than our County Home. Much credit is due to the Directors for their persistent and intelligent oversight and management of the whole establishment.

The effect of the recent absorption of several of the townships into the city of Pittsburgh and Allegheny will be to deprive the Home of about one-fourth of its revenue; but as it will be relieved also of the maintenance and care of the poor from the townships now added to the cities, it is fair to suppose its expenses will be correspondingly reduced. It may be that the withdrawal of so large a portion of the area and population from the constituency of the County Home may suggest that the present buildings and farm are on too large a scale for what remains to sustain them; but the population of these is increasing so rapidly that in a few years it will be found none too large, and the taxables who must henceforth sustain the Home will have the satisfaction of knowing that at least one-fourth of the first expenditure was defrayed by those who now look to the Homes of Pittsburgh and Allegheny for the accommodation of their poor.

A Freshet.

The Butler Citizen says: During the last forty-eight hours our streams have been swollen to overflowing; many of the bridges having been entirely swept away. On Connoquenessing creek three bridges have been carried off between this place and Harmony, viz: Amberson's, Peffer's and Winters'. Allen's bridge, one-half mile, and Fambell's, four miles below Zelienople, are also gone. The Harmony bridge has also been considerably damaged. We presume that considerable damage has been done along this and other streams in the county, of which we have not heard. The streams are still high, and a considerable amount of snow is yet on the ground, and if we should have any considerable quantity of rain shortly, many of the bridges yet standing may be swept away. One thing is perhaps very favorable; most of the ice is gone, and our bridges will not be so apt to be carried off by a freshet unaccompanied by ice; as it is, it will take a considerable quantity of money to rebuild the bridges already swept away.

Seasonable Hint.

The season is now approaching when people will be more liable than usual to attacks of sickness. Care should be taken to purify the system as much as possible. One bottle of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher often has this desired effect. We have no particular desire to puff the doctors or to increase their business, yet there is truth in the old saying that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure;" and from the immense practice of Dr. Keyser, and the many wonderful and miraculous cures made by him, no one will deny that he possesses powers to prevent as well as cure disease. Therefore, in common with all who know him, we cheerfully and unhesitatingly bear testimony to the great efficacy of his medical preparations for the prevention and eradication of disease.—Republic.

Runaway.—A two horse team belonging to J. C. Buffum & Co., which had been carelessly left by the driver in the Diamond, Allegheny, yesterday, took fright and ran away. The wagon was literally demolished, and a fire plug at the corner of Worth alley and Federal street, was broken. The horses were checked in their wild career at Montgomery avenue by running against a wagon. No person injured.

The Streets.—The Street Commissioners of the different districts are actively working to have the streets put in proper condition. A few more days of such pleasant weather as we have had during the present week and our streets will present quite a different appearance.

Disorderly House.—Margaret Byerly made information before the Mayor charging Andrew Shehan with keeping a disorderly house. The accused was arrested and held to bail for his appearance at Court.

Assault and Battery.—L. M. Freeman, made information before the Mayor, against M. Joseph, charging him with assault and battery. The case was settled, defendant paying the costs.

—The M'Ardle case will not be decided for two or three weeks.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, March 12, 1868.

Gold opened quiet at 139¾, advanced to 140, and closed steady at 139¾, with very light transactions. The decline in the premium below 140 is due as much to the scarcity of money or the higher rate for call loans, as the belief that the impeachment of the President is not looked upon in Europe with any distrust, and consequently, little disturbance of the money market is looked for from that quarter. The passage in the National Congress of an act abolishing the tax on manufactures will have a beneficial influence on the condition of the National finances; fraud will be avoided, other taxes paid more cheerfully, and the ability of the Government to meet its expenditures by taxation no longer doubted.

Government bonds seem to recover from the extreme depression caused by the decline in gold, but more from locking up a large amount of money on account of the Erie squabble. The demand for bonds is increasing at these low figures, though any material advance would stop investments.

The stock market is dull but steady, with a general business; most of the leading Railroads are too high for investment, and the smaller short routes have never paid during a time of business stagnation; the capital generally being small, the burden of the indebtedness too great and the affairs of the company can be controlled by a few. Some lively investment demand has sprung up within the last few days for various local bonds, but the market was glutted by a few larger lots of the securities, and prices have relapsed.

Money is more in demand, and 10 to 12 per cent. is paid for good paper not strictly prime; first-class short business can be discounted at 8 to 9 per cent. Business is more active, and there is a better disposition to make engagements.

—Mr. J. P. Farley, Auditor, furnishes us with the following statement of the approximate earnings and expenses of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company during the month of February ult., and of the earnings and expenses for first two months of fiscal year, as compared with the same period of the year 1867:

—In reference to the proportion of large and small Government bonds held by the public, Messrs. Jay Cooke & Co., in a recent circular, say:

It is not generally known how large a proportion of the securities of the United States are held by people of moderate means for the investment of their savings. We have not at hand the precise figures of the denominations in which the several series of Five Twenties were issued, but the following statement shows the number of notes of each denomination embraced in the issue of the Seven Thirty treasury notes, which are now being converted by the Treasury into Five Twenty bonds. In these conversions the Treasury has never been able to supply enough small bonds to adequately meet the demand:

983,580	50s	$49,179,000
1,474,840	100s	147,484,000
438,792	500s	219,396,000
370,376	1,000s	370,376,000
8,821	5,000s	44,105,000
3,156,509		$830,540,000

These figures will give an approximate idea of the amount in which all of the 5-20 bonds of the Government are held.

They show that one-half the loan in amount was taken in 50s, 100s, and 500s, and further, that as 2,877,813 pieces of these three denominations were issued against 371,197 pieces of the large denominations, the capitalists are in a very small minority, and any legislation repudiating, in whole or in part, the obligation of the bonds of the Government would fall most severely upon widows, orphans, and people of small capital, who invested their money in those securities in perfect reliance upon the representations made to them by the Treasury Department, directly, and through its agents at the time of their issue.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, March 12, 1868.

CATTLE.

There is no improvement to note in the Cattle business at these yards, either as regards demand or prices, and the market continues dull and neglected, and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. There was not a single eastern buyer in attendance that might properly be classed as such; and, indeed, there were but very few from any point. The supply, although very light, was, nevertheless, considerably in excess of the demand, and the great proportion of the few that were had to be shipped east on owners account; the sales all told, during the week ending to-day, only reaching a little over one hundred head, which, comparatively speaking, is nothing, as ordinarily, heretofore, it has been no uncommon thing for us to report sales of from two to three thousand in a week. It is true, it is not usual to see a big business in Cattle here at this particular season of the year, but the transactions during the last month or two have been remarkably insignificant, and what is worse still, there is but little prospect at present of any immediate improvement. It is possible, however, that in May or June the arrivals will commence to increase again, as about that time farmers will begin to ship their grass cattle to market, and then, and not until then, do we look for a reduction in prices. We quote the following sales:

McCarty to Scott & Martin 30 head good Southern Ohio steers, averaging 1250, at 8,62.

Christy sold Scott & Martin 12 head good Southern Ohio steers, averaging 1350, at 9.

Hedges & Taylor sold for Saylor to Pidcock & Co. 18 head common cows and steers at $50 per head.

Messenger, Gillett & Co. sold for Foot to Young 18 head, weighing 20,450, at 8⅝.

Moss to Roth 32 head, weighing 37,500—price not named.

SHEEP.

With a limited supply and a good shipping demand, the market for this class of stock has ruled remarkably stiff during the past week, and, compared with last week, prices have still further advanced. There was a very good attendance of eastern buyers, both from Philadelphia and New York, and all the good mutton Sheep offered sold readily, and that, too, at the advance above named. We quote at 5 to 6 for common to medium; 6½ to 7 for good to prime, and 7¼ to 7¾ for extra. The following are the sales:

Glass, Lafferty & Co. sold 178 head for Zimmerman to Voorhees, weighing 13,925, at 5,16.

Smith & Talmage sold 160 head for Erwin to Kase, averaging 100 lbs, at 6,62; 169 for same party to Pancoast, averaging 100, at 6,62.

E. L. Graham to Hesser & Co. sold 60 head, weighing 5,550, at 6⅝.

C. Campbell sold 281 head from Washington county, Penna., to Kase, at 7; 176 to same buyer at 6,90.

HOGS.

There is no let down in the Hog market as yet; on the contrary, with a good shipping demand and remarkably light arrivals, prices have still further advanced, and we now quote at 8¼c to 10¼c, gross, for light to prime heavy averages, and we do believe that a bunch of extra fat Hogs, suitable for the Philadelphia retail trade, would have brought eleven cents. These are certainly pretty stiff prices, but how long they will be maintained, is hard to determine at present.

Glass, Lafferty & Co. sold 101 head for Doud to Roth at 9⅜; 116 for Berry to Keys at 9¼; 107 for same to E. Smith & Co. at 9¼; 101 for same to Gilchreist & Co. at 10¼; 112 for same to Messenger, Gillett & Co. at 9; 145 for Blair to Gilchreist & Co. at 9,56; 12 head for Zimmerman to Pidcock & Co. at 8,60.

E. Smith bought 77 head from Hastings at 8¼; 124 from Pidcock & Co. at 8¼; 19 from Glass, Lafferty & Co. at 8¾; 33 from Gilchreist at 9; 13 from Messenger, Gillett & Co. at 9½; 81 from Robinson at 8½; 306 from Pidcock & Co. at 8,80; 80 from Hedges & Co. at 8,80; 70 from same at 9. These were all bought for New York market.

Hedges & Taylor sold for McWhinney to Keys, — head at 10,35; 112 for same to Pidcock & Co. at 8,90; 8 "bores" to Voorhees at 5; 109 for Brenninger to Pidcock at 8,65; 70 for Kiser to E Smith at 9; 80 head for Drake to same buyer at 8,80.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, February 12, 1868.

Barley is scarce and in demand at $2@2,10. Oats firm and somewhat excited; sale of 1300 bushels in first hands at 68c; 500 bush. to arrive, at 70c; and small sales in store at 73@75c. FLOUR—Is steady with a fair local demand; and we can report regular sales at $10,50 to $11,25 for Spring Wheat; $12 00 to 12,50 for Winter Wheat and $14,00@15 00 for fancy brands. Rye Four unchanged at $8 to 8,25 and Buckwheat at $4,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, March 12, 1868.

CRUDE—The market is quiet and rather "dullish," and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. We can report a sale of 3,200 bbls, on spot, at 8c—to be measured in tank; 1000 for all March; seller's option, at 8¼c, and 1000 do same delivery, and option, at 8⅛. From the above, it will be seen that spot oil may be fairly quoted at 8c; all March, seller's option, at 8¼ to 8⅜c. All the year, buyer's option, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 11 to 11½c, and same delivery, seller's option, at 8¾ to 8⅞c. Oil City telegrams quote at $2 90 to $2 95, a decline; it should be remembered, however, that these quotations are without regard to gravity, which makes considerable difference in the eyes of buyers generally—at least it used to. Since there has been an improved demand for Benzine, there has been less said about gravity than usual, though refiners, as a matter of course, still make a difference between light and heavy oil.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil is steady but unchanged. Sale of a "line" of 3000 bbls, 500 each month, from July to December, inclusive, at 28½c; and 1000 each for September October and December, at 29c. Spot oil is still quoted at 24c, and the same figures will apply to all the month, buyer's option; April at 25c; May 25¼c; June 26c; and July 26¼@27c. All the year, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 31c, buyer's option, the last sale reported being at that figure. Antwerp is reported off a franc, from which it may be inferred that the Dutch are again manipulating; the fluctuations in that market have been very frequent of late.

The action of the revenue officers in New York in seizing cotton that arrived there from the West had a bad influence on the market. The Chamber of Commerce held its regular meeting, and the matter was brought up and discussed with great animation. A preamble and resolution were adopted, showing the absurdity of the conduct of the New York officials. The resolution was ordered to be sent by telegraph to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and this afternoon a telegram was received from Secretary M'Culloch, stating that he had peremptorily ordered the release of all the cotton seized, so that the difficulty may be regarded as settled. Provisions dull and hardly anything doing. Mess Pork could have been bought at $24. Bulk Meats 10@12c. Financial Matters in New York

Gold Closed at 139¾@139⅞.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, March 12, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money showed rather less stringency this afternoon, brokers having made up their loans early in the day; the rates are very firm at 7 per cent. It is understood that about $6,000,000, proceeds of the late sales of Erie, have been removed to a bank in Jersey City, where the officers of the Company are now transacting the Company's business, to evade a process. The Erie funds deposited in the Tenth National Bank were withdrawn early this morning. The bank to-day resorted to certifying checks as unusual under the special pressure. Discounting operations were severely checked by the extreme activity in call loans, and prime paper passed with difficulty at the banks at 7@8 per cent. Foreign exchange heavy and weak; there is but little demand and an ample supply; best bills 9⅝@9¾. Gold rather strong. An effort was made by parties holding a considerable amount of gold, bought at higher prices, to make a market to sell upon. At each advance, however, there was a large amount offered, and the effort was only partially successful. Very high rates are paid for having gold carried, the rate opening at 7 per cent. per annum, and subsequently touching ¼ per cent. per day. The prices opened at 139⅞, advanced to 140; declined to 139½, and closed strong at 139¾@139⅞. Exports to-day $374,265.

GOVERNMENTS.

Governments are stronger and higher under an advance in London, and firmness in the Gold market. Henry Clewes & Co., furnish the following 4.30 quotations: Coupons of '81, 110¾@110⅞; do. '62, 110⅛@110¼; do. '64, 107⅝@107⅞; do. '65, 108@108⅛; do. new, 106⅛@106⅜; do. '67, 106⅛@106⅝. Ten Forties, 101⅛@101¼. Seven-Thirties, 105⅛@105⅝.

STOCKS.

The Railway market opened firmly this morning, New York selling at 128⅛; Erie, 76⅝, but as the day advanced Erie fell to 74½@74⅝, and the whole market was lower, feverish and unsettled. Towards the close, speculation became stronger, and there was a general recovery from the lowest point of the day. New York Central rose to 128⅛, and Erie to 76⅛. Western shares are firmer, especially in Northwestern—the common of which jumped to 70, cash, at one time, while the regular stock was offered at 68, buyers, 67. There is supposed to be considerable short interests in this stock. The preferred shares advanced to 74, and were firm at the close. Wabash was active at 50¾@51. St. Paul closed at 51 for common; 67⅛ preferred. Rock Island rose to 95¾. It is understood that yesterday a large amount of Certificates of Erie stock was prepared and intended for delivery to-day. The amount is stated at 20,000 shares. The following gentlemen were yesterday elected, under the new act of Congress, a Board of Directors of the Union Pacific Railroad, from Omaha west: Oliver Ames, H. S. McComb, John Duff, John J. Cisco, John J. Tracy, Sidney Dillon, F. Dexter, T. C. Durant, C. H. Lombard, F. S. Bushnell, Isaac Bardwell, E. Cook, W. H. Macy, E. E. Bates and John B. Alley. At a subsequent meeting of the Directors Oliver Ames was re-elected President, T. C. Durant Vice President and John J. Cisco Treasurer.

RIVER NEWS.

Our rivers appeared to be at a stand last evening, with seventeen and a half feet in the channel by the Allegheny, and sixteen and a half feet by the Monongahela marks. The former stream is now clear of ice, and it, as well as the Ohio and Monongahela, is in splendid navigable condition. The weather yesterday was sultry and cloudy with every appearance of more rain.

The Julia No. 2 is the only arrival we have to report, and the J. N. McCullough, for Parkersburg, was the only departure. The R. C. Gray, from Cairo, is due, and the St. Charles, from Cincinnati, may be expected to arrive here to-morrow.

The Importer is to be sold at auction on Wednesday next. She is in all respects a tip-top boat, admirably adapted for business, is but two years old, and cost over forty-three thousand dollars. Here is an excellent chance for any one wanting to buy a steamboat.

The Mary Davage and barges cleared for St. Louis yesterday with an excellent trip. It is said that she took out about eleven hundred tons.

An old steamboat Captain and owner, remarked yesterday, that at no time during the past forty years has steamboat stock been so much below par as at present, and we think he is about right. It is no uncommon thing to hear of boats, in good condition, selling for one-third of what they cost, and, it is asserted that at Cincinnati, steamboat stock is even worse than it is here.

The new steamer, Sallie, Capt. Calhoun, is filling up rapidly for St. Louis and the Upper Missouri, and will be the first boat out. She will be followed by the Waunaita, Capt. Thos. Shuman.

The Allegheny river packet Echo had steam up last evening, preparatory to leaving for Oil City. It is said that she has a full load of oil to bring down.

The Glendale and Armenia were loading at St. Louis on Tuesday for Pittsburgh.

The St. Louis Democrat of Tuesday, says Captain David Haney has been appointed master of the mountain steamer Peninah, now at Pittsburgh. Captain W. J. Kountz will locate in St. Louis about the 16th instant. We hope he will remain. Men of thrift and enterprise are always welcome here, and here is a fine field for them. Captain Kountz is connected with a considerable fleet of steamers going to the mountains this year.

The steamer Zephyr, according to a decree made by the United States Circuit Court, in session at Jefferson City, will be sold during the present month. Claims to the amount of $6,000 were proved up against her. The boat is owned by Matt Lowe and Wash Reed, of Alton, and is ordered to be sold to pay the wages of the crew and other claims.

Steam was to be raised this week on the Government snag boats built at Madison.

The Indiana is preparing for a race with the Great Republic, as to which can make the best time between New Orleans and Cairo.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Wednesday, says: Mr. C. D. Miller, of the Commercial, accompanied by his wife and daughter, left on the America last evening, on a trip to New Orleans, to take passage on the Belle Lee at Louisville.

The stockholders of the Louisville Mail Company, yesterday re-elected the old Board of Directors, consisting of M. G. Anders, Z. M. Sherley, Thomas Gaff, W. C. Hite, and J. H. Barker. The Board re-elected the officers of the past year as follows: M. G. Anders, President; T. J. Sherlock, Secretary and Treasurer; C. G. Pierce, Superintendent.

We extract the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial of Wednesday: Capt. Andy Robinson, Jr., has taken charge of the financial department of the St. Charles. Captain John Kyle's new mountain steamer, the Cheyenne, was launched on Saturday last, at Stockton & Mack's Mills. The Havana having arrived, the Lawrence turns over her trip to her. The Havana reships 2500 sacks corn on the St. Charles for Pittsburgh. The Saint James will leave for Parkersburg to-morrow in place of the Ohio No. 3. The Mail Line recently received a lot of bacon for Charleston S. C., which they reshipped at Louisville on the Chattanooga railroad. She received information yesterday that the bacon was delivered to its consignees in Charleston within six days from leaving this port. The St. Marys will be here to-morrow, on her way to Parkersburg with a load of corn. The Directors of the Memphis Packet Company held their annual meeting yesterday, and re-elected the old officers of the company.

ST. LOUIS, March 10.—Rain continues to fall, and has been continuous for thirty hours. Reports come in steadily of heavy rains above, and the rivers swelling on Saturday. The river at Dubuque rose four feet. The people along the river below here are advised to remove property from the reach of an overflow. Tunnage in port is heavy, about forty steamers, and, as yet, little business is being done. The St. Louis & Omaha Packet Line has adopted "O" as its badge.

Two large barges left for the Illinois yesterday to be loaded with grain in bulk for New York. Capt. Kountz, of Pittsburgh, locates in St. Louis on the 15th, to superintend the business of his line of mountain steamers. Have just learned that the Missouri is falling. The Champion left last night, and took her barge from the iron pile at Carondelet. The Armenia and Glendale are still unloading in the rain.

The Montana trade promises to be very large this season. About sixty boats are already advertised to leave this port alone, and there will be a line of steamers to start from Sioux City, Iowa, during the season.

The case of Marshall and Kilpatrick, owners of the steamer Magnolia, which burned at our levee about a year ago, against the Thames Insurance Company, of Cincinnati, went to the jury last night. The returned a verdict for plaintiff of $6,000, the amount claimed, the Court adding 6 per cent. interest. It was a test case, other insurance companies having risks amounting to $60,000, agreeing to abide the result. Nearly, if not all the companies involved, are Cincinnati offices. Some others did not agree to abide the decision, and will stand trial in Cincinnati Courts. The ground of defense was that plaintiffs fraudulently fired their boat or bribed some one to do so.

The Northwestern Transportation Company has bought the steamer Deer Lodge. Price, $20,000.

Rivers and Weather.

LOUISVILLE, March 12.—River is swelling fast with nine feet nine inches in the canal by the mark. A heavy rain commenced at ten this morning and continued steadily till three this afternoon. The weather is very cloudy and more rain is confidently expected. Thermometer 60 degrees.

MEMPHIS, March 12.—Weather clear and warm. River rising. Freights scarce. Departed—Bismarck, early this morning, for St. Louis. In Port—Quitman, Durand, St Patrick, May Flower.
